Fall 2005 Vol.10

No.3

In other words, let's dance.

There is a vibrant beauty that emanates from the Let's Dance/Bailemos stamps. And each artist did an excellent job using vivid colors and sinuous shapes to capture the energy radiating from these dances.

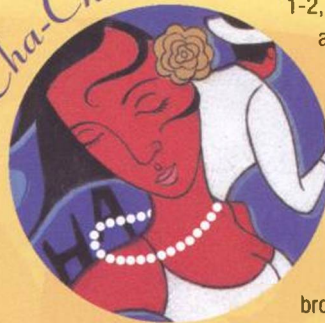

Merengue

Brought to the Dominican Republic by French and Spanish colonists, merengue was adapted by the country's peasant population, who incorporated the tambora drum and a more rhythmic approach.

Born in Mexico City, stamp artist Rafael Lopez is a committed dancer who spends his leisure time at dance clubs. Lopez's dancers, poised in characteristic attitude, engage in short sideways movements as they move in a tight embrace.

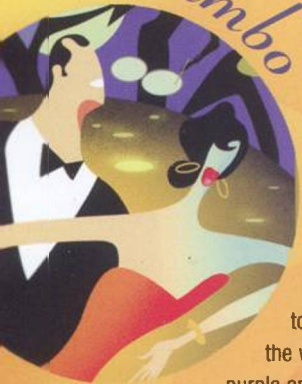

Cha-Cha-Cha

1-2, 1-2-3, cha-cha-cha. Perceived as more sophisticated and European, cha-cha-cha was slower and more constrained than the up-tempo moves of its sister, the mambo.

Cuban native Edel Rodriguez left his homeland in 1980 and settled in America. Rodriguez has effectively juxtaposed the warmth oozing from bronzed skin and the graceful line formed by the dancer's body.

Mambo

Known for its up-tempo beat, fast footwork and fluid body language, mambo laid the groundwork for its offshoots: cha-cha-cha and salsa.

As a young child, artist Sergio Baradat left Cuba with his parents and emigrated to the United States. The red he used in the woman's dress offsets the nighttime purple and gold hues of the ambient light, while a drum-shaped moon seems to join the orchestra's saxophone and timbales, key instruments to the mambo sound.

Salsa

Artist José Ortega was born in Ecuador and grew up in New York City.

He has captured his couple in one of the many pauses that anticipate the defining steps of their dance. They're momentarily apart, arms poised and bodies ready to reverse direction or execute a spin.

Vol. 10 No. 3

Dear Fellow Stamp Enthusiast:

It's not easy to take a subject with as much spirit and energy as Latin dance and make it come alive on a postage stamp. But the talented illustrators we called upon to design the Let's Dance/Bailamos pane made it happen. Their images give us a dramatic feel for the music, and make us want to get up and join the fun. So hit the dance floor and swing to the beat of salsa, merengue, mambo and the cha-cha-cha.

Time to take off your dancing shoes and put on your flight jacket because our American Advances in Aviation pane takes you high in the sky and demonstrates what American technology and innovation have contributed to the field of aviation during the 1930s, 40s and 50s.

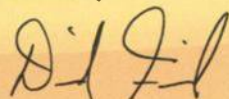

From innovators of aviation to innovators of the silver screen, we'd like to introduce you to the fabulous Greta Garbo. Rising to fame as a young woman, she saw Hollywood through its transition from silent movies to "talkies." My favorite movie of hers is Camille, which came out in 1936 and garnered her an Academy Award nomination.

The To Form a More Perfect Union sheet presents precise moments or pieces of art that commemorate the courage and achievement of the Civil Rights Movement. From the lunch counter sit-ins to Brown v. Board of Education, you can watch some of history's most significant and memorable events unfold.

Where else can you celebrate the winter holidays in the fall? Only in New York. Stop by Madison Square Garden and be the first to nibble on the Holiday Cookies stamps. Our First Day of Issue ceremony is at this year's Fall Postage Stamp Mega Event. Don't miss it.

Thanks again for all your letters regarding our stamp program. I enjoy reading them. If you have any questions, we're just a phone call away at 1 800 STAMP-24 (1 800 782-6724).

Sincerely,

David E. Failor
Executive Director, Stamp Services

P.S. Circle May 27–June 3, 2006 on your calendar. The world is coming to our nation's capitol for the decade's only international stamp show in the U.S., the Washington 2006 World Philatelic Exhibition. Every day will be packed with exciting and fun activities related to stamp collecting. You won't want to miss it! Look for more detailed information in upcoming issues of USA Philatelic.

Since 1775, the U.S. Postal Service has connected friends, families, neighbors and businesses by mail. It is an independent federal agency that visits 140 million homes and businesses every day and is the only service provider to deliver to every address in the nation. The Postal Service receives no taxpayer dollars for routine operations, but derives its operating revenues solely from the sale of postage, products and services. With annual revenues of more than $66 billion, it is the world's leading provider of mail and delivery services, offering some of the most affordable postage rates in the world. The Postal Service delivers more than 43 percent of the world's mail volume—some 203 billion letters, advertisements, periodicals and packages a year—and serves 7 million customers each day at its 38,000 retail locations nationwide.

New Issues

Nine! Count 'em. Nine new issues! Let's get right to it, shall we? Salsa, merengue, mambo or cha-cha-cha the night away on page 4. Revisit our country's history with To Form a More Perfect Union on page 5 and American Advances in Aviation and 50s Sporty Cars on page 6. We have Presidential Libraries, New Mexico Rio Grande Blankets, Silver Coffeepot and Child Health on page 7. And the unforgettable Greta Garbo graces our back cover.

Collector's Corner

There's a lot in the Collector's Corner in this issue. To start: four centuries of art, lighthouses, reptiles and amphibians, outer space, a decoder, deep sea creatures, Kwanzaa, the African-American Cultural Diary, the Inauguration Keepsake, Malcolm X and the Wright brothers. To end, we have our wonderfully comprehensive Stamp Yearbooks, the Postal Guide and beautiful binders. Everything can be found on pages 19-22.

Let's Dance ! Bailemos

A Let's Dance/Bailemos

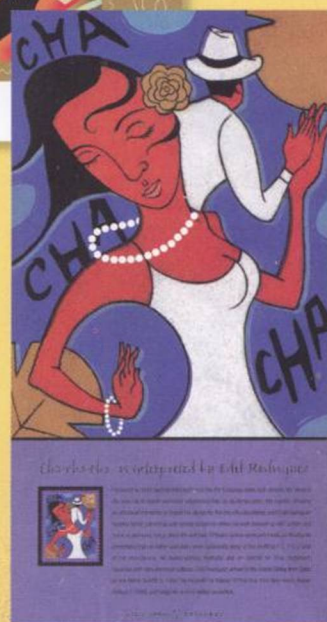

These four stamps trace their roots back to the Caribbean and honor the contributions Latin dance has made in American culture. Each stamp was designed by a different Latino artist who colorfully reinterpreted one of four popular dances: merengue (Rafael Lopez), salsa (José Ortega), cha-cha-cha (Edel Rodríguez) and mambo (Sergio Baradat). This pane of twenty will show your collection some new moves.

B To Form A More Perfect Union

Every stamp on this souvenir sheet presents a detail from a contemporary piece of art commenting on the courage and achievement of the men and women who struggled during the civil rights movement. Our nation's founders created a Constitution "in order to form a more perfect union," and the civil rights movement helped to correct the misconception that great numbers of people were second-class citizens.

B America on the Move: 50s Sporty Cars

The 1950s were marked by optimism, economic prosperity and automotive excellence. This spirited decade put all the vitality it had into these sweet rides. This year we're issuing five commemorative stamps showcasing a '52 Nash Healey, a '53 Studebaker Starliner, a '53 Chevrolet Corvette, a '54 Kaiser Darrin and a '55 Ford Thunderbird, each illustrated by artist Art Fitzpatrick.

A American Advances in Aviation

This pane of twenty stamps illustrates 10 innovative aircraft chosen for their technological contributions to military, commercial and general aviation in the 1930s, 40s and 50s. Award-winning historical aviation artist William S. Phillips painted the illustrations.

E Presidential Libraries

This commemorative stamp celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Presidential Libraries Act of 1955. There are currently 11 libraries in the Presidential Library system, which houses materials generated during each administration, from Hoover right up to Clinton (the Nixon library will be added later this year). Established in the home state of each President after he has left office, these libraries are a testament to a President's legacy.

A. R. Buckminster Fuller

R. Buckminster Fuller was an inventor, architect, engineer, designer, cartographer, philosopher and geometrician. This issue commemorates the 50th anniversary of the patent for his most famous invention: the geodesic dome. Artist Boris Artzybasheff's painting shows a stylized image of Fuller surrounded by some of his inventions.

B. Cesar E. Chavez

Illustrated by Robert Rodriguez, this issue honors Cesar E. Chavez (1927-1993), founder of the United Farm Workers of America, AFL-CIO. A tireless advocate for justice and equality for all people, Chavez dedicated his life to working in the service of others. In 1994, Chavez was posthumously awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom.

D James Baldwin

The Literary Arts series continues with this issue honoring James Baldwin, one of the foremost American writers of the 20th century. Baldwin's writing made him a leading intellectual figure during the height of the civil rights movement. His essays, plays, novels, short stories and poems explored themes of love, race relations and sexuality. The stamp features artist Thomas Blackshear II's portrait of Baldwin, based on a photograph taken around 1960.

E Test Early for Sickle Cell

With the Test Early for Sickle Cell issue, created from an oil painting by James Gurney, the U.S. Postal Service calls attention to an important health issue. Common throughout the world, sickle cell disease refers to a group of inherited disorders that affect the red blood cells. People of all races should be screened with a simple blood test to determine if they have the disease or carry the inherited sickle cell trait.

A Moss Hart

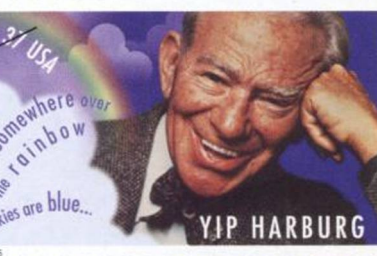

Award-winning author, dramatist and director Moss Hart is honored with this stamp on the 100th anniversary of his birth. Hart was a witty and enchanting personality who directed one of the most brilliant musicals of all time, My Fair Lady. His autobiographical book Act One is a classic theatrical memoir. Working closely with art director Ethel Kessler, Tim O'Brien based this painting on a photograph by Alfred Eisenstaedt, showing Hart in New York's dazzling Times Square.

C Martin Johnson Heade

Talented, innovative and known for his stunning landscapes and still-life paintings, Martin Johnson Heade was perhaps the most versatile American painter of the 19th century. Art director Derry Noyes chose Heade's Giant Magnolias on a Blue Velvet Cloth, a circa 1890 oil-on-canvas, for this fourth issuance in the American Treasures series.

B Yip Harburg

Born in New York on April 8, 1896, Yip Harburg wrote the lyrics for more than 600 songs, all distinguished by their intelligence, humanity and inventiveness. His most famous song, created with composer Harold Arlen, was "Over the Rainbow," sung by Judy Garland in The Wizard of Oz. Stamp designer Ethel Kessler began with Barbara Bordnick's photograph, then added other elements, including a rainbow and a lyric fragment from Harburg's Oscar-winning song.

F. John Wayne

The tenth stamp in the Legends of Hollywood series pays tribute to American film icon John Wayne. Known as "Duke," Wayne played many memorable characters but is perhaps best known for his starring roles in Westerns. The stamp features artist Drew Struzan's painting of the actor, based on a publicity still taken during the filming of The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance.

E. Theodor Seuss Geisel

A uniquely imaginative writer and illustrator, Theodor Seuss Geisel introduced generations of children to the joys of reading. In 1937, Geisel, who was better known as Dr. Seuss, published his first book, And to Think That I Saw It on Mulberry Street. Filled with inventive verses and fantastic creatures, this book and later efforts like The Cat in the Hat and How the Grinch Stole Christmas quickly became fixtures of American popular culture. Geisel won a Pulitzer Prize in 1984 for entertaining and educating Americans for nearly 50 years.

G. Henry Fonda

Our 11th stamp in the Legends of Hollywood series celebrates one of America's greatest actors on the 100th anniversary of his birth. Fonda was known for his naturalness and portrayal of characters who were thoughtful men of quiet integrity. During his long career, Fonda received many honors, including a Tony in 1948 for his work in the Broadway production of Mr. Roberts, and, in 1982, an Academy Award for his performance in On Golden Pond. Artist Drew Struzan based the stamp portrait on a photograph taken by Frank Powolny in 1941. Struzan's selvage art is a pencil drawing of Fonda as Tom Joad in The Grapes of Wrath (1940).

A Art of the American Indian

Featuring photographs of American Indian artifacts dating from around the 11th century A.D. to circa 1969, this souvenir sheet of ten jumbo self-adhesive stamps celebrates the talent, ingenuity and artistic skills of American Indians. The artifacts served utilitarian, social, spiritual and commercial purposes, but they are also extraordinary expressions of beauty. The lettering in the title was designed and created by John Stevens.

B Lunar New Year

For more than a decade, our Lunar New Year series has been a popular favorite. These stamps were issued, one by one, until all twelve animals associated with the Chinese lunar calendar were represented. Now, our souvenir sheet showcases all twelve stamps on a first-ever, double-sided pane. Stamp designer Clarence Lee created intricate paper-cut designs and Lau Bun provided the calligraphic characters.

C Northeast Deciduous Forest

The Northeast Deciduous Forest stamp pane is the seventh in the Nature of America series. Trees that shed their leaves in fall typify the deciduous forest. The temperate climate of the northeastern United States, with four distinct seasons and ample precipitation, supports a complex forest community. Red-shouldered hawks, nocturnal red bats, white-tailed deer, wild turkeys, long-tailed weasels, eastern chipmunks, beavers, black bears and other wildlife occupy the region. Artist John D. Dawson painted the lush scene.

C Old Glory Prestige Booklet

Created by Richard Sheaff, the 28-page booklet provides a colorful history of the American flag from its colonial origins to its prominence in modern times. Old Glory features over 95 pieces of patriotic ephemera representing different aspects of American culture. The booklet also includes 20 stamps showcasing five unique pieces of Americana from the 19th and 20th centuries.

B National World War II Memorial

The U.S. Postal Service honors the 16 million Americans who served in the armed forces, and millions more who supported the war effort at home during the Second World War, with a stamp depicting the National World War II Memorial. This special issuance coincided with the dedication of the memorial during Memorial Day weekend 2004. Artist Tom Engeman utilized computer-generated imagery to recreate the Friedrich St. Florian-designed structure.

D Lewis & Clark: The Corps of Discovery, 1804-1806 Prestige Booklet

In 1804, President Thomas Jefferson sent Meriwether Lewis and William Clark in search of the elusive Northwest Passage. They led the Corps of Discovery on a heroic expedition from the mouth of the Missouri River near St. Louis to the Pacific Ocean and back. Their journey is commemorated in a prestige booklet containing two semi-jumbo stamp designs featuring individual portraits of Lewis and Clark painted by Michael J. Deas in a style reminiscent of early 19th-century portraits.

Duck Stamps

Come fly with me, come fly, let's fly away.

JUNIOR DUCK STAMPS

Proceeds from the sale of Junior Duck Stamps are used to support a national art and environmental education curriculum for students in grades K-12. The first-place national winning design is selected from the Best in Show designs from each of the fifty states, the District of Columbia and U.S. territories.

A NEW! Ringneck Ducks

Ringneck Ducks are more partial to acid ponds and lakes in wooded regions than other diving ducks. They eat the seeds of aquatic plants as well as snails and insects. Fast fliers, they undertake longer migrations than most other diving ducks. The artist is seventeen-year-old Kerissa Nelson from Wisconsin.

Constellations

For thousands of years, people have looked skyward and connected the starry dots. Every culture saw their own mental image while star gazing and related what they saw to their own myths and traditions. Today, most constellations bear Greek or Latin names and are associated with Greek mythology. A pane of stamps, featuring Leo, Lyra, Pegasus and Orion will be available in the Winter Issue. These stamps are the original artwork of renowned illustrator, graphic designer and educator McRay Magleby.

Holiday Cookies

The holidays bring out the sweet tooth in all of us. But did you know that cookies were once used as ornaments to decorate trees? This year we bring you four delicious-looking stamps: two elves, two snowmen, an angel and Santa Claus. Our cookie bakers were Rebecca Vermilyea, Emily Diffrient-Crumpton and Tommy Simpson. Photographer Sally Andersen-Bruce captured the holiday treats on film as they came out of the oven.

A Greta Garbo (USA)

The U.S. Postal Service joins Sweden Post in commemorating the 100th anniversary of the birth of legendary film actress Greta Garbo (1905–1990). One of the greatest movie stars, the Swedish-born Garbo was known for her beauty, artistry, enigmatic personality and sensuality. Engraver Piotr Naszarkowski incised a likeness of Garbo from a 1932 photograph by Clarence Sinclair Bull for Sweden Post. That engraving also appears on the U.S. stamp.
